

Quality and Environment Policy

TTW is committed to operating ISO9001 and ISO 14001 systems with emphasis on participation. Joint personnel for continuous development as follow:

1. Produce quality tap water that meets customer's needs of customers
2. Maximize customer satisfaction directly and indirectly
3. Improve the knowledge, skills, and expertise of all employees. Continuing to raise awareness of quality and environment.
4. Comply with laws and regulations relating to the nature of problems and the environment, and the safety of the company's
5. To prevent pollution that will affect the environment from the activities of the company and its stakeholders, including make the most of one's energy and resources

In this regard, all management are responsible for promoting and supporting the budget. The manpower, the time, the right amount of time, to push quality and the environment according to policy. a given purpose and purpose